

JOB OPPORTUNITIES WHEN RIDING A BIKE

Ride & Earn

1 BIKE COURIER

Bike couriers transport documents, parcels, and other items between different locations. This job typically requires good knowledge of the local area and strong cycling skills.

FOOD DELIVERY

With the rise of food delivery apps, many companies are hiring bicycle riders to deliver food to customers. This job requires a reliable bike, good time management skills, and the ability to navigate local streets and neighborhoods.

2

BICYCLE TOUR GUIDE

Bicycle tour guides lead groups of cyclists on tours of local landmarks, natural areas, or other attractions. This job requires knowledge of the local area, strong communication skills, and the ability to manage groups of riders.

3

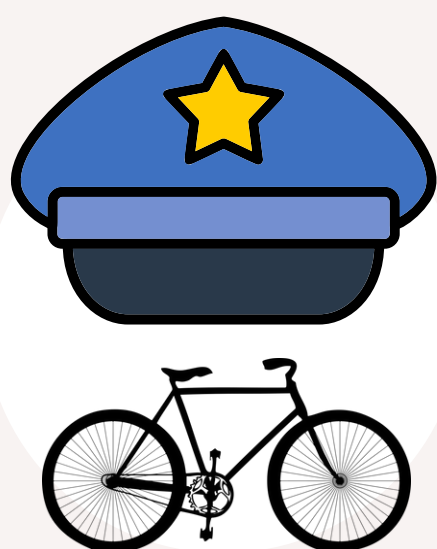

More Info!

PROFESSIONAL CYCLIST

4

Professional cyclists compete in races and events at both the amateur and elite levels. This job requires exceptional physical fitness, skill, and dedication.

BICYCLE PATROL OFFICER

Some police departments use bicycles for patrol in parks, on trails, and in crowded urban areas. This job requires strong cycling skills, physical fitness, and the ability to respond quickly to emergencies.

BIKE RENTAL SHOP EMPLOYEE

6

In areas with high tourist traffic, bike rental shops hire employees to assist customers with selecting and renting bicycles, and provide guidance on local cycling routes and attractions.

BICYCLE DELIVERY FOR BUSINESSES

Some businesses, such as florists or small-scale groceries, may use bicycle riders to deliver their products to customers.

More Info!

The European Commission's support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents, which reflect the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.